

PORTRAIT of a LEARNER

Student Success is our Why. This is our How.

A disposition to inquire about the world

A learner who inquires about the world can explore local and global connections, ask questions of significance that call upon critical thinking, frame problems and construct solutions. They seek information beyond familiar environments. They engage in analysis, synthesis, evaluation, creation, and application.

A disposition to understand multiple perspectives

A learner who understands multiple perspectives interacts with others whose paths differ greatly from their own, honoring the value of our shared human dignity. They recognize and resist stereotypes and understand multiple cultural contexts.

A disposition toward respectful dialogue

A learner who engages in respectful dialogue can communicate across differences and listen with intentionality. They express empathy for others while sharing courageously, openly and appropriately.

A disposition toward grappling with complexities

A learner who can grapple with complexities can persevere in the face of multi-layered processes, ideas, and problems. They can display resilience in the face of challenges and change.

A disposition toward taking responsible action

A learner who takes responsible action collaborates with others with the intent to mobilize ideas into action. They recognize that service to community is a form of action.
