Summer School Begins on Monday, June 22, 2020.

Credit Options

1. E2020/Virtual Courses can be taken for credit recovery if a student has taken a class and not earned credit. They will receive a grade of Pass (G) or Fail (H). These online options require students to report to summer school during the first two days of the session and one of the last two days for the final exam period. Students may come to school during posted lab hours (page 3) for computer use and individual help with a trained E2020 supervisor (certified high school teacher).

2. Michigan Virtual High School (page 4) can be taken for credit recovery, credit advancement, or grade replacement. Students must fill out the Virtual Learning form (page 10) for pre-approval before registering, all classes must be teacher led. These classes are to be done independently by students and transcripts should be turned in when the class is completed. Parents and students are responsible for registering themselves for these courses. These courses are completed outside of school during the summer and submitted for credit after completion. Parents and students are responsible for all aspects of this online learning opportunity.

Registration can be done online, via phone or mail. To register, please fill out the attached application form and pay by credit card, check, or money order, payable to Bloomfield Hills Schools, and mail to:

Athletics, Recreation & Community Services
Booth Center
7273 Wing Lake Road
Bloomfield Hills, Michigan 48301

Registration begins Monday, April 27, 2020.
The last day to register is Friday, June 19, 2020.

MATH

ALGEBRA I - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 9,10,11,12

1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)23301-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)23301-20C02

Algebra I builds on the increasingly generalized approach to the study of functions and representations begun in the middle grades. This is done by broadening the study of linear relationships to include piece wise functions such as absolute value and greatest integer, systems of equations, formalized function notation and recursive representations, and more.

ALGEBRA II - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 9,10,11,12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)23302-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)23302-20C02

This course is intended for students who plan to pursue a course of study that requires advanced algebra skills. The student will study in more detail the topics of Algebra I, as well as polynomial, exponential and logarithmic functions, and complex numbers. Trigonometry, plus arithmetic and geometric series and sequences, will also be included as time permits.

GEOMETRY - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 9,10,11,12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)23411-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester).....23411-20C02

Students will explore the axiomatic development of Euclidean Geometry. Topics of study include congruence and similarity, geometric inequalities, parallel lines, circles, regular polygons, geometric solids, perimeter, area, volume, transformations, and symmetry.

PRE-CALCULUS - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 11,12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)23601-17C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)23601-17C02

The students will study functions and relations, conic sections, trigonometry, complex numbers polar coordinates, arithmetic and geometric series and sequences, the binomial theorem, logarithms, theory of equations, plus other topics from college algebra.

LANGUAGE ARTS

WRITING/LITERATURE I - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 9

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)21220-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)21220-20C02

This course addresses the needs of students at different levels of competency in the areas of composition, literature, grammar, and vocabulary. Writing assignments will stimulate critical thinking and self-expression and reinforce grammatical, mechanical, and vocabulary skills. Literature study concentrates on comprehension, interpretation, and appreciation. Speaking and listening skills are reinforced through formal and informal presentations.

WRITING AMERICAN LIT / VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 10

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)21236-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)21236-20C02

Reading materials in this course focus on the study of American literature through the Nineteenth Century. Selections may include The Crucible, The Scarlet Letter, Billy Budd, Walden, and poetry of Whitman and Dickinson. Writing assignments will reinforce and add to the grammar, vocabulary, and writing skills developed in previous courses. The second half of the course will focus on Twentieth Century American literature. Paperback books supplement textbook readings. Selections may include Ethan Frome, A Farewell to Arms, The Great Gatsby, The Grapes of Wrath, Glass Menagerie, Death of a Salesman, and such poets as Frost, Sanburg, and e.e.Cummings. Writing assignments will reinforce and add to the grammar, vocabulary, and writing skills developed in previous courses.

SCIENCE

BIOLOGY I - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 9,10,11,12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (1st semester)25201-20C01

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)25201-20C02

This is a required laboratory course that emphasizes the traditional concepts of cell structure and function, biochemistry, classification, heredity, genetics, evolution, ecology and a survey of the human body systems. Students must demonstrate proficiency to receive credit.

CHEMISTRY - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 10,11,12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (2nd semester)26011-20C02

This course takes a global and comparative approach to studying the world, its past, and geography to develop a greater understanding of the development of worldwide events, processes, and interactions among the world's people, cultures, societies, and environment. This course balances the historical, political, economic, and social interactions of people in all regions of our world while emphasizing the development of a variety of academic skills.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 11

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.26502-20C01

This course is designed to provide each student with the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary for him or her to take an active and responsible role as an American citizen. This course is an analysis of the form and function of our federal, state, and local governments. Throughout the course, the rights and responsibilities of citizens are stressed. This fulfills the graduation requirement. This one semester course fulfills the state requirement of Civics.

ECONOMICS - VIRTUAL *E2020

Gr. 11-12

-- 1/2 CREDIT EACH SEMESTER --

7:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.26200-20C01

Students will understand how economies function and how to apply the concepts and principles of economics to their lives as individuals and as citizens. The course will emphasize three areas. Microeconomics will look at decisions of the market system based on scarcity, opportunity cost, inflation, unemployment, monetary and fiscal policies, and the Federal Reserve. International economics looks at specialization and trade. Personal finance includes understanding and applying personal financial issues and strategies. This one semester course fulfills the state requirement of Economics.
