Bloomfield Hills Schools Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) Technology Use for Educational Purposes Student Acceptable Use Policy Agreement

I accept and agree to abide by the following terms and conditions regarding the use of the Bloomfield Hills Schools technology and network. Further, I understand and agree that:

- Access to District technology is a privilege and that responsible use is expected. I accept that inappropriate behavior may lead to consequences including disciplinary action, revocation of my account, or responsibility to make financial restitution to the district.
- Technology use at Bloomfield Hills Schools is for educational purposes only. These include, but are not limited to, classroom activities, research activities, publishing of projects, and the exchange of class-related ideas, opinions and questions via email, message boards and other District sanctioned means. Online games, social networking, chat rooms, and personal (nonschool related) email do not meet the definition of educational use and are prohibited.
- Materials I create and/or store on the system are not private. If warranted, school personnel may access and review all network materials and student accounts.
- The District retains the sole right to determine content and configuration of district equipment. Destruction or alteration of school technology, including hardware, software, or data, is prohibited.
- Downloading, installation, or use of software or files from outside sources requires permission from an authorized staff member.
- Use of personal hardware, disks, CDs or DVDs on district equipment must be approved by an authorized staff member.
- Passwords are not to be shared; user accounts must not be shared or left open. If I share my password or leave my account open, and it is used by someone else, even without my permission, I will be held responsible for their actions as if they were my own.
- Private, commercial, offensive, or illegal use of district technology is not permitted.
- Violation of copyright law is prohibited.
- Use of district technology is contingent upon return of this signed form.

Codes of Conduct Acknowledgement

All students in the Bloomfield Hills School District are expected to adhere to the guidelines of the Uniform Code of Student Conduct. You may access the Uniform Code of Student Conduct on the district website at www.bloomfield.org/studentconduct.

If your student intends to participate in clubs and/or sports, we would also ask that you review the Athletic and Co-Curricular Code of Conduct. Access to the Athletic and Co-Curricular Code of Conduct can be found on the district website at www.bloomfield.org/athleticconduct.

We believe that it is also important for you to review the Uniform Code of Student Conduct with your student throughout the year and know where to find it if necessary. We are asking that, prior to the start of school, you read the Uniform Code of Student Conduct (and the Athletic and Co-Curricular Code of Conduct if participating in clubs and/or sports) and review the contents with your student.

I have reviewed with my student the following documents:

- Uniform Code of Student Conduct
- Athletic Code of Student Conduct
- Co-Curricular Code of Conduct
