

Hooray! _____ will be a 1st grader next year.

Show Your Conant Cub spirit by applying our 3 Essential Agreements to your summer thinking. Have your parents check off the activities as you complete them, and return this sheet to Mr. Russo in the Fall.

Respectful

There are many ways to show kindness and respect!

- Read A Raz-kids Book about someone from another part of the world
- Give a compliment to a service worker
- Create a positive message using sidewalk chalk
- Play a game with a friend . Use kind and encouraging words.
- Music- sing a song with your family

Responsible

Be responsible for yourself, your belongings, and your learning over the summer by:

- Media: Sign up for summer reading at BH Public library or your local library
- Build something with blocks: Explain your creations to someone
- Create a board game to play
- Practice tying your shoes
- Organize your room or help a family member with chores
- Practice spanish- visit www.lcfclubs.com/babelzoneNEW

Safe

It's important to be safe anywhere you go. The following ideas will help you have a safe and fun summer.

- Talk about a Home Safe spot in case of an emergency
- Draw and label a picture about summer safety
- Read a story about being safe (Public library might have some choices)
- PE- Play outside with a friend for 30 minutes with permission
