

Hooray! _____ will be a 3rd grader next year.

Show Your Conant Cub spirit by applying our 3 Essential Agreements to your summer thinking. Have your parents check off the activities as you complete them, and return this sheet to Mr. Russo in the Fall.

Respectful

There are many ways to show kindness and respect!

- Write a thank you letter to someone who has done something nice for you.
- Provide a random act of kindness for a friend or family member.
- Clean up after yourself when you make a mess.
- Help your parents, grandparents, or a neighbor with gardening and yard work.
- Work with a partner to make a sandcastle that is interesting from all angles (art).
- Sing a song with your family (music).

Responsible

Be responsible for yourself, your belongings, and your learning over the summer by:

- Practice math facts with flash cards, math apps, or "Top It" card games.
- Practice telling time by keeping track of your schedule. Set a time limit for screen time, and keep track of the time.
- Grow your brain and read each day! Sign up for summer reading program at BH Library or your local library.
- Keep your room clean and organized.
- Practice Spanish! Visit www.lcclubs.com/babelzoneNEW

Safe

It's important to be safe anywhere you go. The following ideas will help you have a safe and fun summer.

- Know and be able to write your address and phone number.
- Know how to tie your shoes. Tripping is no fun.
- Make safe choices when using the internet.
- Keep yourself safe and healthy by making a list of healthy snacks you like to eat.
- Always wash your hands after using the bathroom and before eating.
- Play outside for 30 min., 5 days a week with permission. (P.E.)
